Week Ahead

Wednesday, our children will visit the local church for this years Harvest Festival.

As the children will be walking to church please make sure they are wearing suitable coats and shoes as the weather can be unpredictable. We would welcome donations of tinned or packet food that will be donated to the local foodbank.

Thursday will see pupils being treated to a culinary experience from France. There will be a traditional French menu being served at Lunchtime with tempting dishes including Chicken Chasseur, Pizza Baguette and some very tempting French desserts.
