Looking Ahead

Monday 23rd October we will be having our Pumpkin competition. All children are invited to display their creative pumpkins at the start of school by the main entrance. Judging will take place during the day and prizes awarded to the winners.

All pumpkins will then need to be collected at the end of the day.

Our Halloween disco will take place on Wednesday 25th October, please look out for the letter being sent today.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Notice Board

Can all parent/carers continue to read with their child twice a week and send their signed reading record back to school weekly.

Homework will be set every Thursday and must be returned to the class teacher by the following Wednesday, please check your child has completed any work sent home.

Any children due to start High school in September 2024 please remember that applications close on 31st October 2023.
